

NATIONAL SATURDAY CLUB

NATIONAL TRUST BUSCOT AND COLESHILL ESTATE

This year we are opening our doors to the National Saturday Club and are inviting young people aged 13-16 to join us for an exciting programme filled with Heritage Skills and focussing on a sustainable future.

All Students attend FREE. The club runs on Saturdays for 20 weeks, approximately 4 weeks per term.

Saturday Club Members will spend time at the National Trust Heritage and Rural Skills Centre developing skills with experienced craftspeople, building awareness of endangered skills and empowering young people with the knowledge to protect our cultural heritage.

Heritage Crafts: • Blacksmithing • Decorative Wood carving • Stained Glass window making • Introduction to Lime plaster • Coppicing • Green wood Carving

Other Highlights: • Visit Chastleton House seeing heritage skills throughout history • Explore Coleshill's Secret History Inc. Grounds out Coleshill House • Hands on experience working in Coleshill Parkland • Trips with The National Saturday Club • Summer show exhibiting all Clubs work in Somerset house London

Our club will run for 20 weeks and be on site at the National Trust Heritage & Rural Skills Centre in Coleshill

Students will be taught by a range of highly skilled Tutors, who are practicing craftspeople, and supported each week by National Trust Volunteers and Children and Young People Lead. This is a chance to learn new skills, make new friends and be part of a national network of young creatives through the Saturday Club Trust.
