Walkers – By prior notice only please. We will send a google form around to collate details of those students walking up by themselves. We will not release students to walk home without prior notice for safeguarding purposes so please do let us know.

Parking – Please park further away from school or walk up if possible. We will operate a brief drop off and pick up point on the school field for some cars if required although this will be busy and therefore, we recommend parking away from site if you can. Signs and staff in high viz will direct you.

What Do They Need? – Pencil case, water bottle, primary uniform, packed lunch.

Activities – Students will follow a normal day

- Sample lessons
- Meeting key staff
- Assembly
- Tutor Time

We look forward to meeting you at these events and for the students to start the process of settling in to their new school.

If you have any queries relating to these events, please do not hesitate to contact us at transition@fcc.cambrianlt.org

Kind regards

Julia Nichols
Head of Year 7 and Transition Lead
